

ACADEMIC PROGRAM CANCELLATION

The college reserves the right to discontinue academic programs due to low enrollment or other factors. Students who are currently enrolled in the elected program will be notified in writing of the termination procedures and timelines. Formerly enrolled students will be required to select a new program of study or alternately complete the program within the prescribed time frame.