

GEOGRAPHY (GEO)GEO 129. World And Cultural Geography. 3 Credits.

Surveying world economic, political, social, and cultural factors and the impact and significance they have on people, geographical space, national and world affairs, this introductory course stresses the basic principles of human geography. A global, geographical perspective is given to such topics as population and settlement patterns, health and nutrition, technologies, livelihoods, international politics, religions, languages, and art forms. Prerequisites: ENG 098, FYE 101, RDG 098, or placement.